LETTERS TO HOUSTON

Dearest Saints,

Praise the Lord! Sorry that we have not been able to update you all much. Juggling the multiple responsibilities of being in the Full-Time-Training, working part time at Kaiser, and taking care of real-life responsibilities as a commuter trainee has continued to be the bulk of my training. The training classes have been a wonderful source of supply and I treasure them very much. At the same time, because I am juggling many things, it is easy for mistakes and failures to occur. When this happens, it is easy to slip into self-condemnation, disappointment, introspection, "how can I make things better," "how can I (improve myself) so that I don't make that mistake again?" But, the Lord isn't for me to be perfect in myself. He actually just wants me to turn to Him in the midst of these situations! He wants me to live by Him and live because of Him! Thank the Lord that we have a fountain installed in our being! We can live because of Him! These failures are just exposing me that I don't turn to Him enough. At the same time, it is just not worth it staying in our discouragement... our anxiety... and our self-analyzing. I can just turn to Him!

Otherwise, we are doing well! The Children's team recently took a team trip to Oak Glen and we had a really sweet time. It was great to spend time with the trainees outside the training center and get to know them more. Even raking leaves with the trainees was fun, because we got to form huge piles of leaves and jump into them afterwards! I also did not realize how much I needed to escape the concrete jungle and just be surrounded by nature. I was thoroughly refreshed being there.

Last but not least, we will find on 11/28 where I will match for specialty training! May the Lord place us according to His will for His move!

Do let us know how you guys are doing. We would love to hear from you all!

Grace,

Austin and Julie Hu

Hello all,

I've been really busy these several weeks, however the busier I get, the more I enjoy my mingled spirit (1 Cor. 6:17). Recently, I've been enjoying this word, "blending."

God has blended the Body together (1 Cor. 12:24); the word blended means "adjusted," "harmonized," "tempered," and "mingled", implying God has blended the Body together (1 Cor. 12:24); the word blended means "adjusted," "harmonized," "tempered," and "mingled," implying the losing of distinctions.

Blending means that we should always stop in order to fellowship with others; we should not do anything without fellowshiping with the other saints who are coordinating with us, because fellowship adjusts us, harmonizes us, tempers us, and mingles us.

I don't have any updates, yet. So please continue to pray for me as I endeavor to seek the Lord's leading after the I finish the training. Speaking of which... I graduate on the December 22

Dear Saints,

Praise the Lord for the building up of His Body and the gaining of the New Man! At the end of October, we had the yearly European Blending conference held in the Netherlands again. Last year the ITERO in Germany took the place of this conference, so we were happy to blend again this year. The topic was the New Man. Lord, strengthen us all into the practice of putting off the old man and putting on the new man! His Person is so precious!

A few weeks ago, there was a young adults outing held in Utrecht. We have been practicing this year to have multiple gatherings with the saints from Belgium, the Netherlands, and Dusseldorf in Germany. It has been so good to be brought together like this. The speaking this time was an exhortation to get into the truth and to stand against our disposition. Amen, Lord! Do it in this generation.

Last week there was the annual conference in Brussels, Belgium. The content was from the current Wednesday Ministry Meetings on the Central Vision. We brought two students with us and they were both touched with the Lord's intention to build Himself in Christ into our being. We also brought our three boys with us and they were touched by the saint's care for them and the big gymnasium that they had free reign to play in (swinging ropes and rings, ladders to the ceiling, endless piles of huge mats to jump onto J)

Since Willem and Riette have recently moved back to Holland from England, our coordination among the 3 serving couples has had a strengthened continuation. Our main burden is still for Amsterdam and Rotterdam, and also for the perfecting of the many young married couples and families. In addition, we're doing a lot of praying and coordinating for the upcoming Winter School of Truth held in Holland.

Our family is doing well. Erik has joined a soccer team and loves it. Luke has swimming lessons each week, working on his swim diploma. Benny started preschool this year and is thriving. Our favorite part of the day is reading Bible stories each evening before bed. The boys love answering the questions in the back. Benny participates too and loves to be fed questions which always have the answer: "Jacob!" This gets us all creative in considering the many questions that can be answered this way. Benny also loves to join in the reciting of the Old Testament books and sometimes fills in the book automatically when one of the big boys gets stuck!

We have been encouraged recently that the Lord is faithfully developing our faith and love. All the saints in the Body or so precious and we are encouraged that Lord is working to make us a corporate, mature bride that will make Him come back.

With love,

Henk, Tamara, Erik, Luke, Ben (The Netherlands)
